BASEBALL UMPIRES MUST BE ABOVE SUSPICION

Anton Marcellino stated this morning that the Oahu Baseball League intended its umpires to be entirely free from suspicion and imputation of any crooked work. "We shan't wait till it is proved that an umpire has sold a game before firing him. If it can be shown that he has made a bet on any game, or expressed an opinion as to the outcome of any game, we shall have no further use for his services."

At a meeting of the Special Series Baseball League held last night in the office of C. F. Chillingworth, it was decided that the schedule of Kelo games should proceed uninterruptedly and that the third game between the Chinese and the Kelos should take place next Wednesday afternoon.

A committee consisting of A. K. Ozawa, representing the Kelos, and A. P. Steers, representing the All-Chinese nine, they to select a third member, was appointed to deal with the Kelo protest, based on last Wednesday's game with the Chinese. This committee will meet tonight in Chillingworth's office.

In the matter of a change of umpires, the Japanese committee were instructed to file formal charges, if they have any, of incapacity or dishonesty on the part of Messrs. Bower and Mayne, and to present same at a meeting to be held in Chillingworth's office next Monday night at seven-thirty o'clock, at which meeting the two umpires will be present to defend themselves.

There will be no change of umpires in this afternoon's and tomorrow's games.

It was agreed that in future games no one but players shall be allowed on the benches, and that no one shall be allowed in the enclosure under the grandstand but the special league teams, the Kelos and Chinese nines, and managers and captains of the teams.

The meeting was well attended, among those present being Messrs. Chillingworth, Marcellino, Crawford, Gleason, Williams, Walker, Treadway, Nottley, Rice, Akama, and the Japanese committee, consisting of Odera, Iida, Maruyama, Abe and Yashomori.

Complain of Umpires.

The question of a change of umpires was taken up first, the Japanese committee having decided that the umpiring in the past two games lost by the Kelos was unsatisfactory as to decisions on balls, strikes and base, and having made accusations against Umpire Bower.

Chairman Treadway asked for facts. Abe, who acted as spokesman for the Japanese committee, said that a man had told him that one Nakamura had said that Bower had told him that it was a safe bet on the Chinese in the last game with the Kelos. He also stated that to his certain knowledge $3,000 was bet on last Wednesday's game. The committee, he said, wanted the umpires changed for the remaining games of the series.

Gleason said that it wouldn't be the fair thing to throw an umpire out on hearsay evidence. He suggested that the Japanese committee bring Nakamura before a meeting and give Bower a chance to defend himself.

Chillingworth remarked that if he were Bower he would demand to be brought face to face with the man who made such serious charges.

Maruyama wanted no more games played until the umpire question was decided.

Marcellino said a few strong words on the subject of any interruption of the schedule and Maruyama changed his mind.

It didn't look last night as if the Japanese are any too willing to produce Nakamura.

best all-round fighter the American public has seen in action since the halcyon days of Bob Fitzsimmons, has laid bare the kernel of the coconut is quite apparent, even to the uninitiated. That the black man stands so far out over the balance of the present-day heavyweight fighters as to almost beggar comparison is admitted by all who profess to follow the trend of things pugilistic.

"So far as Langford is concerned, he is again correct. The public would not pay a 'respectable' purse for such a meeting. Why? Because, in the first place and on the surface, it is again quite apparent that Johnson is the superior of Langford in every department of the game. The finish could have but one answer. On the other hand again, where could such a will be staged? And there you are.

"Personally, I can certify to Johnson's determination to spend the remainder of his days in luxurious ease. The only way we will ever see him, or, rather, the only thing that will force him to again climb through the ropes will be for one of his enemies to get enough on him to break him financially."

SPORTDRIFT

An effort is being made to arrange a game between the Kelos and the Fifth Cavalry.

The new Fifth Cavalry pitcher is said to have speed to burn. He showed his class in the game with the Chinese team.

E. S. Gee, formerly of Honolulu, and Penning recently won an important tennis match in Baguio.

The Kelos play the Portuguese this afternoon and the Hawaiis tomorrow afternoon at the athletic park.

A game of baseball is being talked of between the Japanese and Chinese barbers of the city. Next!

The Hauula and Laie nines also claim the championship of the windward side of the island and will fight it out among themselves next Sunday at Laie. Last Sunday the Laies defeated the Hauulas by the score of 10-6.

The Wailuku Sugar Company boys have organized a baseball team, the members of which are Hookano, Meyer, Bal, Crawford, Hose, Correa, Bento, De Mello and Kaial. Hookano and Meyer are the battery, and Crawford is captain. Games will be played with Paia, Punene and Lahaina nines.

AH FOOK TO FIGHT BILL MILNE

Bernard Kelekolio writes from Hilo that he is promoting a contest for the featherweight championship of the Big Island, to take place in Hilo on September 2, the fight to be fifteen three-minute rounds.

The participants will be Ah Fook, the well known part-Chinese boxer and runner, and Bill Milne.

These men met in a four-round contest some time ago and the decision went to Milne. Since then they have been aching to get at each other over a longer course, and the opportunity is now presented the by the versatile Bernard.

There will be four preliminaries, which the promoter guarantees will be good and fast. Each will be a four-round three-minute affair, and the gladiators are billed as follows: Alabanza, the "Filipino Fighting Rooster," vs. Kid Melnott.

Joe Gomes, the "Portuguese Lion," vs. Tsugi, the Pap wonder.

Kid Dorovan, the "Irish Fighter," vs. M. Rich, the "Spanish Slayer."

S. Yoshida, the "Japanese Togo," vs. M. Gomi, "the unknown."

Kelekolio also writes that he will be glad to receive a challenge from any featherweight in Honolulu who cares to tackle the winner of the Ah Fook-Milne contest, and that he will stage such bout on the evening of November 24, Thanksgiving Day, such challenge to be read at the ringside on the night of September 2, the challenger not to weigh more than 122 pounds.

Address communications: M. Kelekolio, box 444, Hilo.

A CHALLENGE TO WRESTLERS

Joe Thomas, wrestler, is out with a sporting and sweeping challenge.

He offers to give $200 to any man who can throw him in fifteen minutes and to give $100 to any man who can stay with him on the mat for the same length of time.

Thomas' manager, "Silky" Bill Douthitt, will be glad to hear from local wrestlers on the matter or to arrange a full-fledged contest. John Froelicher or Sallor Roberts preferred.

Thomas came down here on the last trip of the S. S. Siberia from the Coast. He is the picture of an athlete, weighing about 175 pounds. He means business and his challenge isn't a bluff, as respondent will quickly learn.

Since coming to Honolulu, Thomas has taken things easily, seeing the sights and getting acclimated. He has done light work ever since his arrival, however, and is ready to go on the mat at short notice.

JOHNSON SAYS NEVER AGAIN

CHICAGO, June 30.—"Ah doan reckon dat I'll evah fight again." Jack Johnson dropped this remark to a Chicago interviewer just before he left the Windy City for his trip to London. The writer then goes on to give his reasons why Johnson made this statement.

"Immediately following the Reno fiasco Johnson told me that he never would train again. Hence this more recent announcement was not surprising. That he means every word of it is my firm belief, and the reason lies in the fact that Johnson has TOO much money to undergo the rigors of a strenuous preparation.

"When pressed for a more explicit explanation Johnson sidestepped the question quite cleverly with the laconic remark: 'Why, sah, ah doan need no fight.' Then, as if he had suddenly realized that he had committed an egregious error, qualified the statement by saying: 'You see, it's like this: Dere ain't no one to fight. Langford is the best left, but the public does not want to see two black men fight. Then, again, dere ain't no moah place to fight. So what's de use of arguin'?' That the colored man, the
